LUNDI GRAS KICKS OFF AT 10 A.M. MONDAY, February 20, 2012 IN RIVERTOWN
Argus, Zulu Royalty Toast; Mayor Yenni and the Kenner City Council

The Lundi Gras party starts jammin’ at 10 a.m. Monday for a day of fun, music and food as this year’s Carnival revelry kicks into high gear in Kenner. The popular Groovy 7 takes the Rivertown stage at 11 a.m. and plays until 2:30.

One of the highlights of the day is the noon arrival and meeting of the royal courts of the Krewe of Argus of Metairie and the Zulu Social Aid and Pleasure Club of New Orleans. Both organizations parade on Mardi Gras before thousands of spectators.

They will be joined by Mayor Michael S. Yenni and members of the Kenner City Council to officially welcome the Carnival royalty to Kenner. Center of the activity is the parking lot across Williams Boulevard from the Rivertown Exhibition Center and the Kenner Mardi Gras Museum. Local vendors will man booths selling food, refreshments and crafts during Lundi Gras.

Argus royalty includes Sheriff Newell Normand, King Argus XXVIII, and his Queen, Ashlee Krantz. Zulu royalty is King, Elroy A. James and his Queen, Dr. Tanyanika Phillips.
