ACTIVITIES FOR EVERYONE THIS WEEKEND IN KENNER

Kenner, LA. – The City of Kenner offers a weekend filled with patriotism, music, movies and plenty of fun.

The Moving Wall, a half-sized replica of The Vietnam Veteran's Memorial in Washington, D.C. is now available for viewing 24 hours a day until it is taken down at noon on Monday, May 19th. Stop by and visit any time of the day or night, or plan to see the Wall during a number of special events planned for the five-day visit.

At 9:00 a.m. on Friday, a procession including police, firefighters, military vehicles and motor clubs will depart from The Pontchartrain Center heading southbound down Williams Blvd. A special Honor Board including the names of the 47 Fallen Heroes of Jefferson Parish will be escorted to the opening ceremony at Veterans Park, located behind City Hall at 1801 Williams Blvd. Mayor Mike Yenni will commence a moving and patriotic opening ceremony at 10:00 a.m.

Friday night, live music lovers are invited to Kenner's free concert series Music in the Park. Mojeaux is scheduled to take the stage in Heritage Park from 6:30 – 9:30 p.m.

Saturday night, "let it go" and head to see Disney's Frozen at Kenner's Movies in the Park on our giant 25-foot outdoor movie screen. Showtime is 8:00 p.m. in Heritage Park.

Those looking for live theater should act fast. The production of Young Frankenstein at the Rivertown Theaters for the Performing Arts is almost sold out for the weekend. For more information and show times, call the Box Office at (504) 461-9475 or visit <http://www.rivertowntheaters.com/>.

Enjoy stand-up comedy this weekend at the Castle Theater. Friday at 8 p.m. GG's Comedy Tour begins at 8 p.m. On Sunday, switch gears for a Soulful Sunday with Linda Wright at 6 p.m. Tickets are $15. For more information, go to www.castle501.com.

Also, The Esplanade Mall is hosting Spring Fling by N.A.M.E. Carnivals Thursday through Sunday. Located in the southeast parking lot outside of Dillard's, the carnival will have food, rides and games!
