U.S. FLAGS IN KENNER AT HALF-STAFF TO HONOR BELGIUM TERROR VICTIMS

Kenner, LA. – All U.S. flags at city of Kenner offices have been lowered to half-staff to honor the victims of Tuesday’s terror attack in Brussels, Belgium, Acting Mayor Michael Sigur announced. The flags will remain at half-staff, by presidential proclamation, until sunset on Saturday.

In the proclamation ordering flags to be lowered to half-staff, President Obama said: “The American people stand with the people of Brussels. We will do whatever it takes, working with nations and peoples around the world, to bring the perpetrators of these attacks to justice, and to go after terrorists who threaten our people.”
