KENNER COUNCIL ELECTS NEW OFFICERS FOR 2016

Kenner, LA. – The Kenner City Council on Thursday elected Mike Sigur, District 2 councilman, as its new president beginning in January. He succeeds District 1 Councilman Gregory Carroll.

However, that election means Sigur will act as the interim Mayor beginning Jan. 6 and through the end of the fiscal year, June 30. Kenner Mayor Michael Yenni was elected Jefferson Parish President on Oct. 24, and his first day in Jefferson Parish is Jan. 6. Kenner law calls for the Council President to take over in the event the Mayor steps down.

The council also voted to name District 5 Councilman Dominick Impastato as vice-president. Impastato will oversee council meetings as president through June 30.

Impastato and Sigur will switch roles beginning on July 1 with Impastato as the council president and Sigur the vice-president. That means Impastato will become interim Mayor and Sigur will oversee the council meetings.
