PLENTY OF CHOICES FOR WEEKEND FUN IN KENNER

Kenner, LA. – A busy weekend in Kenner includes a popular theater production and comedy show along with a farmer’s market – all in Rivertown – as well as one of the biggest gun and knife shows in the country at the Pontchartrain Center.

Tonight at Castle Theater, 501 Williams Blvd., national touring comedian Kenny Bob Davis will join Jodi Borrello and Becky Allen for a special night of comedy. The show begins at 8 p.m. For more information, contact the Castle Theatre at (504) 287-4707.

On Friday, the Patchwork Players will present a production of Aladdin on the Lagniappe Stage of the Rivertown Theaters for the Performing Arts. The show begins at 11:30 a.m. at the theater at 325 Minor St. For more information, call the box office at (504) 461-9475.

From 8 a.m. to noon on Saturday, fresh produce, advice and demonstrations are available at the Rivertown Farmers Market, 400 Williams Blvd. The market is open the first and third Saturday each month. For more information, contact Nancy Ladner at (504) 468-7211.

On Saturday and Sunday, the Great Southern Gun & Knife Show will take over Halls A and B of the Pontchartrain Center, 4545 Williams Blvd. The shows run from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $10 for adults. For more information, contact the Pontchartrain Center at (504) 468-6692.

Also on Saturday at Malibu Rum Coconut Beach, 100 Coconut Beach Ct., is the second qualifier stage of the 1st Annual Squirrel Open. The tournament is in honor of Jeff “Squirrel” Wilson, a manager and player at Coconut Beach who died suddenly last year. The competition begins at 10 a.m. For more information, go to www.coconutbeachla.com.
