Kenner, LA. – This weekend in Kenner features some great comedy, the best in local produce, a youth employment event at The Esplanade and the chance to sign up for Summer Volleyball Leagues at Coconut Beach.

Enjoy two of the city's favorite funny ladies – Becky Allen and Amanda Hebert – in “Dawlin & Hawt” on Saturday night at 8 p.m. the Castle Comedy Theater.

Allen and Hebert are directed by Ricky Graham for this special display of New Orleans comedy. Tickets are available online at www.castle501.com. For more information, call (5604) 287-4707.

There's still time to register for Summer Leagues at Coconut Beach. There are 6-player teams on Thursdays and Fridays and quads only on Wednesday. Additionally, Tuesday includes Youth Leagues regular 6-player teams as well as a special time and place for kids. There are two leagues – one for players 18 and under and the second for players 13 and under. The rules require one girl for every two boys on each team.

Although clinics begin for all the leagues on Tuesday, registration is still possible beyond this weekend and throughout next week. Official league play begins on June 14. For more information or to register for one of the leagues, go to <http://coconutbeachla.com/volleyball>.

At The Esplanade, young people are invited for all-day programming that includes job opportunities and tips regarding beneficial employment skills from local organizations.

Non-profit groups Family Solutions of Louisiana, Xplore Federal Credit Union, Magnolia Community Services and NOEJATC will offer free expertise and information concerning credit strategies, job training, stress management, securing a job and more.

In addition to on-site information and skill training, Esplanade retailers Earthbound Trading, I'm Tai'Lored, Old Navy, Rue 21, Target, Zales and many others will be in Center Court to interview potential employees for current openings. Absolute Real Estate will also be on-site to discuss careers in real estate and advice on renting versus buying a home.

The event is free and open to the community and runs from noon to 6 p.m. at Center Court inside the mall, 1401 W. Esplanade Ave. For more information, call (504) 465-2161.

On Saturday morning, beginning at 8 a.m., be sure to visit the weekly Rivertown Farmers Market, with fresh produce and tips from local experts, in the parking lot opposite Exhibition Hall in the 400 block of Williams Blvd. The market runs until 1 p.m., weather permitting.
