TROPICAL STORM BARRY UPDATE

Kenner, LA. – The Kenner Emergency Operation Center will remain at a Level 2 activation throughout the night in order to coordinate any response that may be needed by the city's emergency response team.

The EOC will remain staffed until at least 6 a.m. Sunday, at which time a decision will be made whether to deactivate the EOC or reduce staffing levels.

Mayor Ben Zahn and the Emergency Management Department will continue to watch Tropical Storm Barry and to monitor any impact to the city.

Because wind and rain are still expected from the storm, Mayor Zahn asks residents to remain vigilant, clean out storm drains when it is safe to do so and follow the latest weather developments.

City offices are scheduled to re-open Monday during regular business hours.
