KENNER'S REPRESENTATIVE ON JCVB EARNS EXECUTIVES AWARD

Kenner, LA. – Congratulations to Carolyn Barrett, Kenner's dedicated representative with the Jefferson Convention & Visitor's Bureau for being named Executive Member of the Year by the Louisiana Society of Association Executives.

During the group's recent annual convention, Barrett, CGMP, CHSC, Senior Sales Manager for JCVB, received the award for her dedication and contributions to the society.

"We are proud of our association with the JCVB and Carolyn's work, in particular, in bringing events to the city such as last summer's Lieutenant Governor's Tourism Summit," Kenner Mayor Michael Yenni said. "This is an award that is well deserved."

The Louisiana Society of Association Executives is a statewide group comprised of chief executive officers and association professionals from many different types of organizations in the state, as well as allied vendors from multiple states.
