MEDIA NIGHT EVENT WEDNESDAY CANCELED; AVP VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT TO BEGIN THURSDAY

Kenner, LA. – Wednesday’s Media Night event at Coconut Beach has been canceled due to the threatening weather, but the AVP Pro Beach Volleyball tournament that begins Thursday with a qualifying tournament and continues Friday through Sunday in Laketown is not affected, officials said.

The tournament in Kenner is the first of eight across the country for the AVP tour, and highlights the start of the Olympic year.

The four-day, nationally televised tournament will feature some of the top male and female beach volleyball players in the world, as well as food, music and interactive activities for the whole family.

The qualifying tournament is at Coconut Beach and three days of main draw play begin on Friday on four courts spread out across Laketown. The event is free and open to the public.
