KENNER COUNCIL ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

They Will Serve for Second Half of 2010

Members of the Kenner City Council elected Kenner At-Large Division B Councilwoman Jeannie Black council president to serve for the remainder of the calendar year. She succeeds Michele Branigan in the post.

The council elected District 1 Councilman Gregory Carroll as vice president. He succeeds District 5 Councilman Kent Denapolis in that post.

The action came at the council's meeting on July 8. The new officers took their seats immediately after their selection. Natalie Hall was retained as the council clerk.
