Kenner District 2 Councilman Joe Stagni announced Monday that a second meeting of the city council's alcoholic Beverage Special Legislative Committee has been set for Monday, August 23, in the 3rd floor council conference room at city hall.

Stagni, who is the committee chairman, made the announcement during the committee's first meeting in recent times. About 20 city officials, neighborhood leaders and bar owners attended the August 17 meeting.

At the August 23 meeting, committee members said they hope to discuss possible new laws aimed at tightening controls on businesses that have licenses to sell liquor and beer but are not following state and city requirements.
